

Merry Christmas

Happy Holidays from CITC

Dear CITC Customers:

This Christmas season, we've not only been blessed with all of your support keeping CITC running smoothly and profitably, but we're also happy to share some fun in-house talent with you. Click on the following poem written by our own Production Manager, Joe Beckett. The poem describes CITC during the Christmas season. You can send him a smile at joe@citcfx.com. We know you will enjoy it!

We look forward to strengthening our relationship by providing you with even more support in the coming year.
